

Strategic Business Coach

Jim Roman has helped small business owners and professionals make more money, have more time and live more life for more than 20 years. A highly respected strategic business coach, Jim's results-oriented programs and talks inspire and empower people to take action.

Jim knows from personal and professional experience the vital part associations play in in the success of small business professionals. That's why he works closely with associations, chambers and organizations like National Association of Residential Property Managers (NARPM), Association of Consulting Foresters (ACF), Oklahoma Society of Association Executives (OSAE), Lakeland REALTORS and many others.

Jim's work with associations nationally, regionally and at the chapter level increases the value of membership and the strength of leadership. He helps build chapter and national organizations that grow and thrive by making sure their members do, too.

Jim has built and sold several successful businesses and now travels the country working with small businesses and the associations that support them. He lives his own best life in Orlando.

Build a Better Business. Live a Better Life.<sup>SM</sup>
